Lead on, thou proud Old Wesleyan
Thy sons are worthy the foe.
Their torches flash the challenge out:
Their hopes beat flaunting the glow.
Pulse by our colors golden fame;
Couraged with the strength of the brown,
Thy honor shall march, Oh Wesleyan,
Comparisoned in flame.

You chosen sons, hold that line!
Now push that ball right down the field,
To set the old bell a-chime.
Touch down, touch down, our valor claim
Shall sound through the college halls.
Oh, fight, fight, for Wesleyan
Must play a Victor's game, Hurrah!

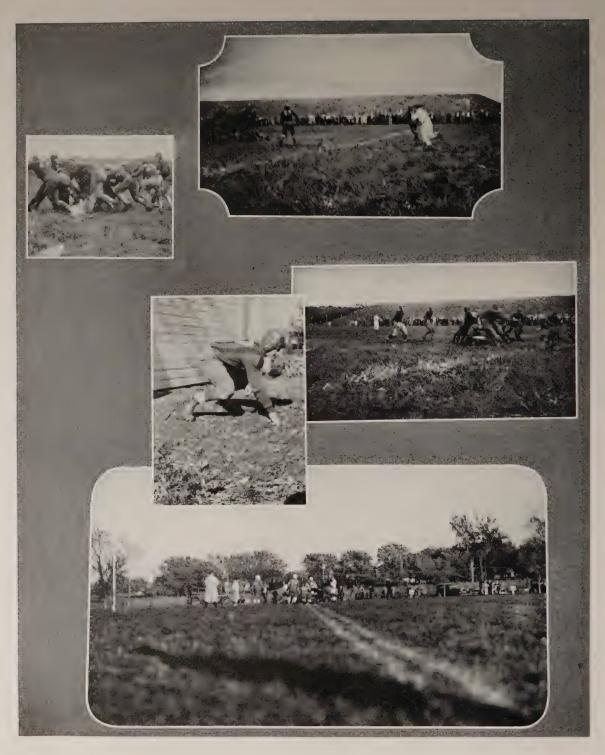

Some of the features of "Homecoming Day." The Theos won first in fraternity decorations, and the Alpha Gams in the sorority. The band and pep club are active, as these pictures illustrate. The rally of the night before cannot soon be forgotten.

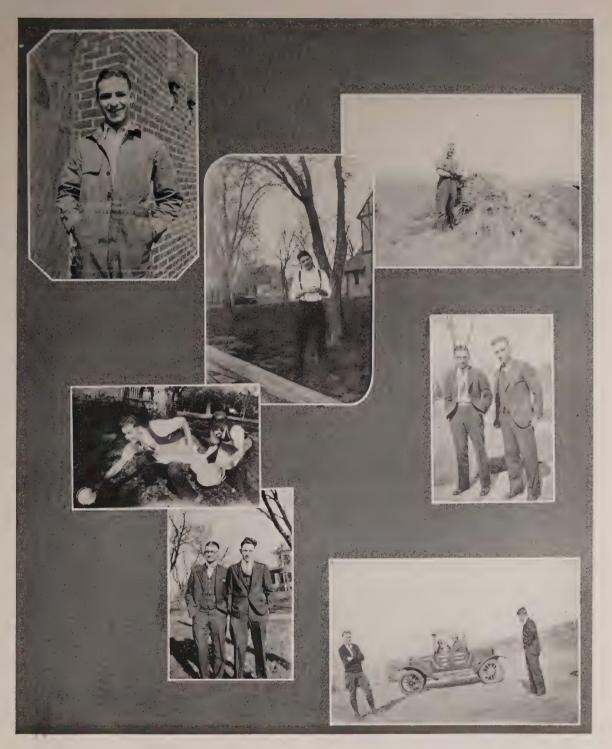

Again, the band and pep club. The Physics building and the Teachers College are featured in snow scenes. The church across the campus is a part of our Alma Mater.

Our first semester Senior president as a tenth grader in high school. "Bill" had his kid days, too. Other Seniors. The Senior breakfast held at the Cornhusker Hotel.

Football Memories—Scenes from the Southern Normal game. The reserves have their share in helping the Varsity. Scoring a touchdown.

Just a few of Wesleyan's promising great men. Ford has made "miracles" out of a car—but none quite like this.

And Wesleyan has some actors! Perhaps the "gaiety" season will open soon.

When oil is applied on the Glee Club trip.
Students work—even at Wesleyan.

Arriving at one of the cities.

The Future Great

By Edgar A. Guest

Turn to the future, boy! There wait
Tomorrow's leaders strong and great,
Across the far-flung sky of fame
Full many a meteor shall flame.
A book some struggling youth shall pen
Shall stir once more the hearts of men.
The world must have its conquerors new
And one of them may well be you!

Read with amazement this man's tale!
A poor boy once, whose cheeks were pale,
Starting with nothing but the will
Some useful post on earth to fill,
Now rich, and leading countless men.
This story shall be told again —
Someone this selfsame feat shall do;
Take heart, my boy; it may be you.

Nothing is strange about it, lad;
New strength, new vigor, must be had.
Brave youth must rise! Each age demands
Clear brains, strong hearts and willing hands.
There is no limit placed on fame;
'Tis something any boy can claim.
Hold fast! Work hard, be strong, be true—
The future keeps a place for you!

Think not that every battle's won
Or all the deeds of splendor done:
There's not a field upon the earth
But waits to bring new fame to birth.
Poor boys with glory shall be crowned,
And men shall pass their stories round.
This great success which thrills you through
Tomorrow may belong to you.

CHANCELLOR I. B. SCHRECKENGAST Ph. M., S. T. B., D. D.

For seventeen years, Dr. I. B. Schreckengast has embodied for Wesleyan students, all that is desirable in ideals of character, fine manhood, and leadership.

If it is possible for students to love a man, a leader, a University Chancellor, then Nebraska Wesleyan students love Dr. Schreckengast.

FRANCIS ASBURY ALABASTER
A. M., Litt. D.
Dean of the College of Liberal Arts

The College of Liberal Arts has eighteen departments leading to degrees of A. B.; B. S.; and B. S. in Business Administration. This college also offers preprofessional courses in dentistry, engineering, medicine, and nursing. Preparation for law and ministry is given by special courses.

For the students who take work in this college, scholarships, fellowships, and assistantships are granted in the best graduate schools in the country.

BERTRAM EVERETT McPROUD

A. M., Ped. D.

Dean of the Teachers College

The Van Fleet Teachers College was added to the University in 1917. Since that time there has been a large expansion in this college. A little later the laboratory of twelve grades was added. Since 1926, the Bachelor of Science degree has been granted to the students registered in this college.

The work of this college under the leadership of Dean McProud is receiving nation-wide commendation.

EMMA CROOKS GILBERT
Dean of Women

While there seems as yet to be no fully standardized definition of the work of the Dean of Women, it is generally understood to be advisory leadership of the young women in our universities.

If the real object of an education is conceded to be "the development of an attitude toward life" the office of the Dean of Women is assisting in the process by emphasizing ideals of character, by maintaining standards of behavior, and by affording disciplinary training in citizenship and service while striving "to stress constantly the power and honor and glory of true womanhood."

HARRY CLINTON GOSSARD B. S., Ph. D. Dean of Men

It is the duty of the Dean of Men to analyse carefully all of the personal influences which affect the lives of students either as individuals or as groups, and in a large way guide and direct the activities and energies of the student body along channels which will bring the student the largest degree of success and happiness in his college life, and make him in the finest sense of the word a desirable citizen.

In this institution, Dr. Gossard has made a striking effort to seek out and remedy the causes of scholastic difficulties, to meet the intimate personal problems of the students' life, and to give aid and direction in reaching a decision concerning the choice of one's life-work.

PARVIN WITTE

B. S.

Dean of the College of Fine Arts

The College of Fine Arts offers courses leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Fine Arts in Music, Expression and Art, as well as the degree of Bachelor of Music in Education. A two year Diploma in Public School Music Supervision and a two year Diploma in Expression are also issued by this college.

This college has had a phenomenal growth in the last few years.

CLASS OLYMPICS

Class Olympics caused more enthusiasm this year than ever before. The night before the eventful day the Frosh and the Sophs mixed in a paddling session at the corner of 47th and Baldwin. President Briggs, after a half hour of fun, shook hands with President Underkofler and decided that they had had enough for one evening. With this as a beginning the two classes were 'on deck' for the annual scrap. As is the custom, the Freshmen walked off with the honors. Of course this wouldn't have been possible had the Freshmen fellows not been backed by the feminine members of the class.

Students In The School of Nursing

In 1927, by the generous consideration of the University Board of Trustees, Bryan Memorial Hospital School of Nursing became affiliated with the Nebraska Wesleyan University. Thus these young women are able to supplement the preparation in the School of Nursing with university courses in chemistry, bacteriology, anatomy, physiology, psychology, dietetics, public speaking and English for which they receive college credit. The affiliation makes it possible for these young women to complete the required work for the degree of bachelor of science within a comparatively short time after completing the required work in Bryan Memorial Hospital School of Nursing.

This group of splendid young women is an asset to the student body of the University.

Junior and Senior Kindergarten Teachers

The aim of the Kindergarten-Primary Department is to encourage desirable changes in thought, feeling and conduct of the child.

These two groups of students observe and do their practice teaching in the Teachers College High School.

Practice Teachers

NEBRASKA WESLEYAN HIGH SCHOOL

The Nebraska Wesleyan High School is under the supervision of the University. The enrollment has been increasing. High school parties are held during the year, and much spirit has been manifest during the athletic contests. The grade school is a part of the Lincoln School System.

Professor Roy W. Deal is the director of the Teachers College High School. Miss Zazel Sloniger is the Principal.

WESLEYAN HIGH BASKETBALL TEAM

The Wesleyan High School Basketball team played one of the most successful seasons in the history of the school. With Mr. Mitten as the coach, the local High School won eighteen of the nineteen games in the regular season.

The basketball team was winner of the Greater Lincoln League; was winner of the District Championship held at Wesleyan; and went to the semi-finals in the Regional Tournament that was also held at Wesleyan.

The lettermen of the team were: Captain Arthur Hoag, Eldred Shirk, Lewis Hufman, Douglas Richardson, Warren Parker, Edward Paul, William Zabel. The Student manager was Hershner.

THE ALUMNUS

The alumnus is the official organ of the Alumni Association. Formerly it appeared three times a year, but this fall the Executive Board felt that by publishing it monthly as a news sheet, the members of the association scattered all over the world would be kept in closer contact with each other and with the University; and the news contained in the sheet would be fresher. The plan seems to have met with the approval of the members, so that the board will doubtless feel justified in continuing the plan.

The officers of the association are:

President, H. R. Esterbrook, '93.

First Vice-President, Hazel Griffis Durham, '16.

Second Vice-President, Lillian Calvert, '26.

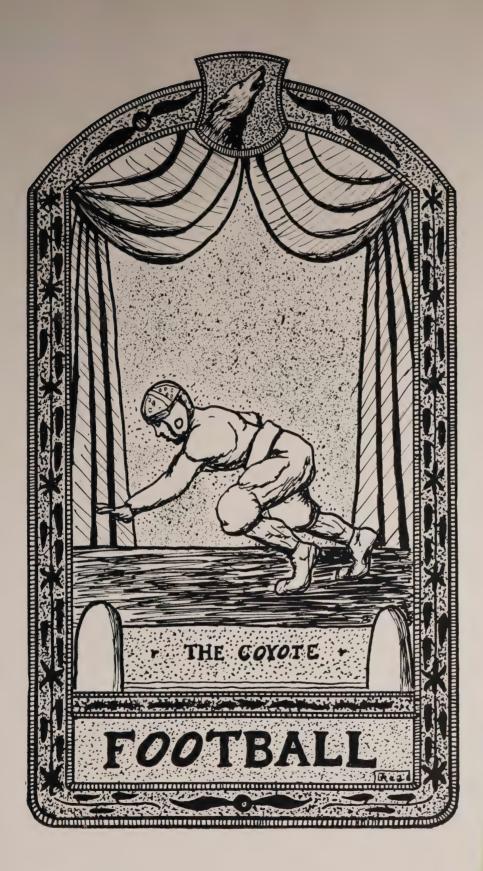

Secretary-Treasurer, Marietta Snow, '11.

ATHLETICS

COACH ALABASTER
"Ally" has ended his second and last year as coach for Nebraska Wesleyan. First, as player, and then, as coach, Alabaster gave all he had to the school he loved. He had the confidence and respect of the entire squad, and he was rewarded for his efforts by the team turning in some thrilling victories as well as taking defeat like men. The school, as well as the team will wish "Ally" success in his future work.

ROBERT McCONNAHA

Captain

As captain of the 1929 "Coyotes" Bob attained his greatest glory as a football player. As Bob has often said, "To play good football, one must eat, sleep, talk, and play football." He did all of those things, even memorizing signals in his dreams. He was originally an end, but in the Morningside game, he was shifted to quarterback, where he shone as an able field general and a great open field runner. He was a fast man on end runs and in returning punts he was hard to grab. Above all, Bob was a successful catcher of passes, by which he has won several games. He was placed on the Lincoln Star's roll of honor, besides being placed on several other honor teams.

Ross Bonham

Ross Bonham

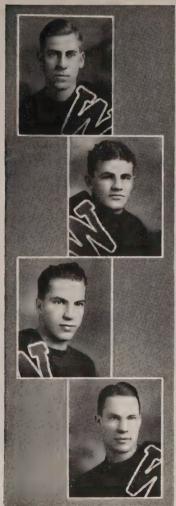

Captain-Elect

With Bonham as the future leader of the pack, Wesleyan should attain her share of the victories next year, "Rosie" has been an outstanding player at guard, besides demonstrating his ability to lead men. His teammates all like and respect him. Bonham fights hard. He is especially good on pulling the balcarrier down, but he is also able to rip those needed holes for his partners to crash through. The State Journal gave him honorable mention. tion.

RICHARD ALLYN
"Dick" was an accurate passer and a real fighter at center. Playing his last year for Wesleyan, Allyn gave all he had for the team. He was injured for a part of the season but came back with a glorious spirit to fight hard. The State Journal gave him honorable mention.

MERRILL BRAYMEN

He was an end that the opponents backfield seldom circled. He was good at chasing punts, generally waiting to spill the receiver of the punts. He was able to provide the necessary interference in many instances.

LYLE BRIGGS

Briggs was a fast, heady little quarter-back. He was an able field general and a good man on defense. He rarely fumbled. He accomplished his plays correctly.

CLIFFORD CROWELL

Crowell was an end that maintained his assignment in an excellent fashion. He is tall, and used his height to good advantage in snagging passes. He rarely let a man outside his end and backed up his mates remarkably well.

MARION CROWELL

"Mike" was a halfback that will be missed by Wesleyan next year because of his ability to carry that ball. Numbered among the surest tacklers on the team, he provided that necessary punch to stop opposing plays.

VERNON CLEMANS

Clemans played end on the football eleven. This was his first year for Wesleyan and showed to a good advantage on the wing position. He was always able to follow punts successfully.

EUGENE DAVIS

"Buck" was a center that Wesleyan is proud to have. In high school, he was an All-Western Center, and he has lived up to his reputation. He was good on defense, being able to hold and hold hard.

STANLEY HAWLEY

Hawley was a lineman of exceptional ability. His experience in "throwing" opposing ball-luggers came in mighty handy for Wesleyan.

GLENN MOON

Moon was fast and shifty. His main feat was in sidestepping his would-be-tacklers. He was a half-back of exceptional merit.

WALDO NICKOLS

Nickols showed the coaches that he knew football. He was an able kicker, both on punts and place kicks. He was a fast man to tackle on offense and hard to elude on the defense.

GERALD THOMPSON

"Jackie" was handicapped by injuries John during part of the season. He was a Mare half three man who tackled low and hard. The team depended on him for punts and nacces with a points after touchdowns. He was placed for of less these on the Lincoln Star's roll of honor.

LAWRENCE READ

Handicapped by a bad foot, "Red" gave a good account of Duo years have every game he played in. He played safety for part of the season, being med able to elude opposing ends on the return.

LAWRENCE ROHRBAUGH

Rohrbaugh was a hard fighter and gave his opponents plenty to think about. By hard persistent efforts, Rohrbaugh was able to uphold his part of the line.

MASON BRIDGES

Bridges was the heaviest man on the team. He held up his part of the line in excellent fashion. He is a freshman who lettered because he supplied plenty of fight when it was needed.

ROBERT GIBB

Gibb comes from Crete High where he was noted for his successful ball-carrying qualities. He was a hard line plunger, and an excellent man for interference. He was good at snagging passes, which added to his ball-carrying powers, made him a valuable man. Gibb was given honorable mention by the Journal.

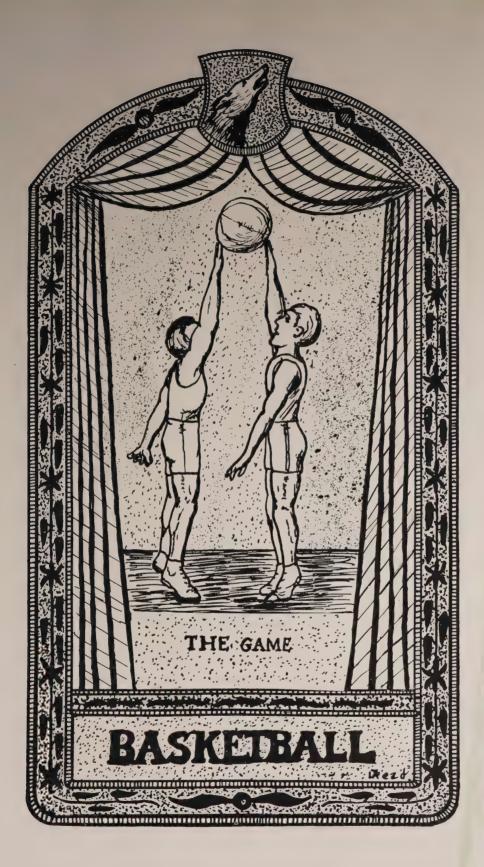

Amos Coffman

Playing his first year for Wesleyan, Coffman served notice of his ability as a football player. Coffman was especially noted for his power in stopping the opposing forward man. He was immovable on defense and opened holes on offense.

EARL SMITH

Earl has won his honors by his tireless and spirited play. On defense he was always after the man with the ball. He was noted for being able to break through the line, throwing his opponent for a loss. Smith was given honorable mention by several papers of the state.

J. Dale I wish I could have had thepleasure of being in the kitchen with you. you are a valuable man ju phi Jan, and I happe you come back ness year. Let's have a wing year again. I wish to Heres to a longer of his Jan, and bratter. I wish to year to a longer of his Jan, and bratter. I wish to

HEAD COACH DOW

Confronted with an immense task of building a winning five out of a few veterans, Dow started with determination and vigor. He was in part successful, but Wesleyan did not finish high in the conference. Dow knows how to play basketball and he continually sought to transfer that knowledge to his players.

STANLEY JOHNSON, Captain

Stanley was a guard that opposing teams feared. He was placed on the third team of the conference, elected by the seven cage coaches. When baskets were needed Johnson "came through." He was a captain that worked for the team.

JOHNNY WARD

Although small in stature, his unusual speed and accurate eye made him a marked man in the game this year.

GIBB

FELLERS

SMITH

Morton Dickson

Playing his second year of varsity basketball, "Mort" improved with each game, developing into a guard of exceptional ability. He was able to hold his own with any forward of the opposition.

BURNS FELLERS

Fellers was high point man for Wesleyan in numerous games, thereby demonstrating that he was a 'match' for any guard. With two more years of varsity basket-ball, we can expect "Doc" to be an exceptional player.

His basket shooting often aided in turning apparent defeat into victory. He was a steady, consistent forward that could be depended upon to secure points.

FITZ

TESELLE

ROBERT GIBB

Gibb played his first games for Nebraska Wesleyan this year. He occupied the center position. Gibb showed to the best advantage when near the basket, being especially adapt at "follow" shots and short center flips.

HAROLD KILLINGER

Playing his last season for Wesleyan, Harold stood out as a defensive player of commendable merit. He was the center upon whom Wesleyan depended for the "tip-off."

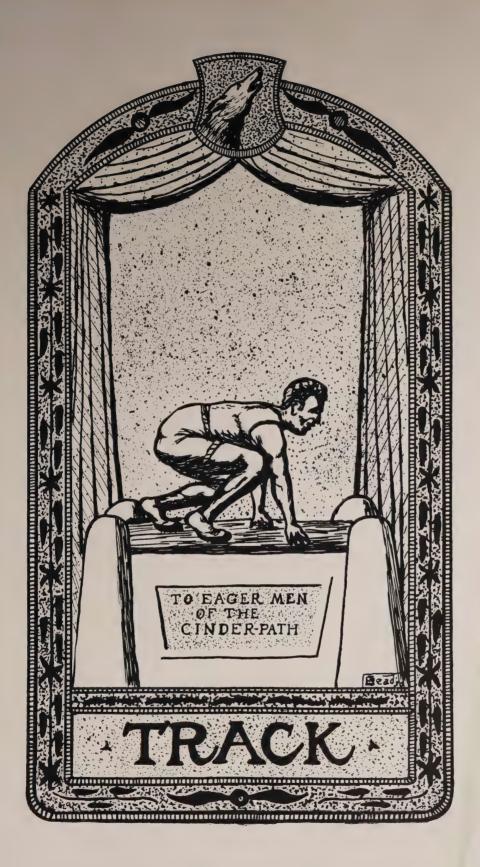

Max Smith

Although only a freshman, Max, throughout the season, gave an exhibition of basket-shooting that was worthy of a "four-letter" man. With three more years of college basketball, he will without doubt develop into one of the best players in the state.

LLOYD TESELLE

Lloyd was a guard that was ready to fight for Wesleyan, whenever he was called upon. He proved himself capable of holding the opposing forwards in check.

CROSS-COUNTRY

The Wesleyan Cross-country team, under the leadership of Captain Harold Gibbs, has had a very successful season. They won three dual meets and came in second in the state meet.

Wesleyan's 1929 victorious team consisted of Captain Gibb, Elmer Bostock, Ben Wallace, and Charles Hancock.

On October 25, Wesleyan won a dual from Cotner. In the Wesleyan-Doane dual meet, the Coyotes again came out victorious. On November 15, Wesleyan again defeated Doane on the latter's home course. In the 1930 State Conference meet, Hastings carried off high honors, and Wesleyan placed second.

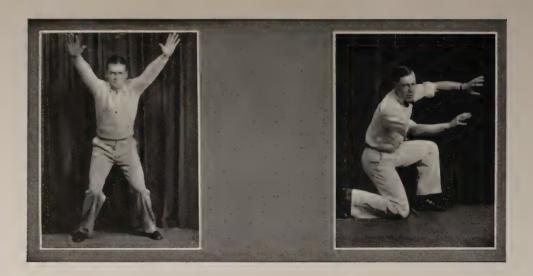

Wesleyan Track Team

In the inter-fraternity meet, the Phi Kappa Taus were successful in carrying away the scoring honors. This was substituted in place of the inter-class meet.

The new Wesleyan Track bowl is working in well with track activities for this year. Wesleyan won a dual meet from Midland by a score large enough to show Wesleyan's supremacy.

Track men from Wesleyan were entered in the Hasting's relays, where "Foamy" Beers won first place in the pole vault and Lowell Welch won second in the same event. The mile relay team won second in the same meet.

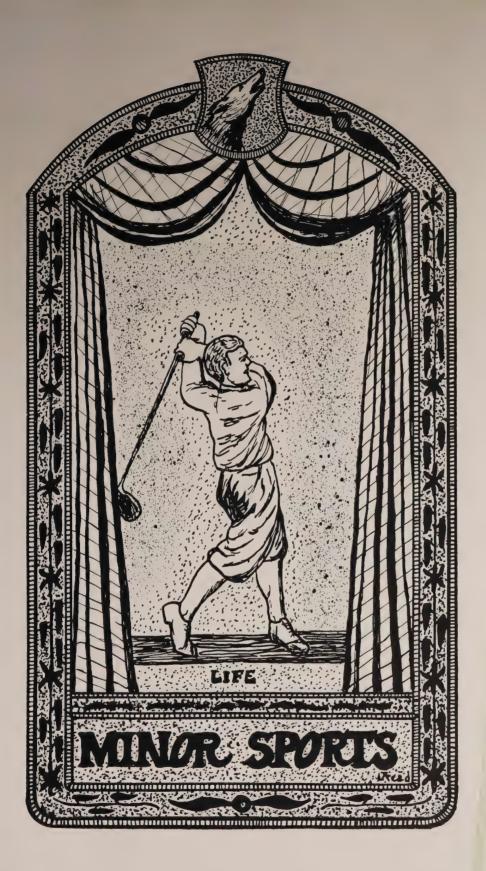

Coach Dow entered men in the Drake relays.

Cheer Leaders

This year a "W" sweater was offered to the cheer leader who would be selected by the student body to lead the cheering both on their own field and on other fields.

With this in view, during halves of the Peru-Wesleyan game played on the lighted field at Havelock, a number of students tried for the position. The result of the votes was in favor of Tom Donahue as cheer leader and Frances Thompson as assistant cheer leader.

Wesleyan Tennis Team

The Wesleyan Tennis team has already played one tennis match with Cotner. Wesleyan won five matches of the six played.

John Ward, who is the State Conference Singles Champion of 1929, is Captain of the team. The rest of the team is composed of Harold Ried, Waldo Nickols, and William Ferguson.

Wesleyan will play teams from Grand Island, Hastings, York, Midland and Doane to complete the season. The State Conference was held at Wesleyan May 16-17.

Golf

The schedule for golf is the same as that of the tennis team. At the present time, the golf team is composed of Harold Hinson, Wiley Green, Burns Fellers, and Warren Guthrie. The fourth place on the team is open to challengers.

The golf team defeated Cotner in all of the four matches played at the Antelope Golf Course, April 24.

INTRA-MURAL TOURNAMENT

Phi Kappa Tau won the intra-mural basketball tournament in 1929 by winning from the Beta Kappa five by a close score of 19-12 in the final game of the elimination tournament.

Basketball and football lettermen were allowed to compete and this added a great deal to the quality of play.

The varsity squad was chosen for the most part from the players participating in the tournament.

Among the second teams of the various fraternities, Theta Phi Sigma defeated Delta Omega Phi in the final game by a score of 41-8. In the consolation round, Theta Phi Sigma defeated Delta Omega Phi by a score of 12-10 in the final game.

Theta Phi Sigma won the besketball intramural trophy last year.

GIRLS ATHLETICS

Physical Education is required of all freshmen and sophomores. Each girl when entering is given a physical examination and this helps to determine the kind of activity she may take. If she can not participate in strenuous sports she is given corrective gymnastics and sports such as: archery, horse shoe pitching, table tennis, and hockey golf. As soon as she has improved sufficiently she is allowed to change into a strenuous sports class.

The normal girls are given a program, which consists of such sports as soccer, hockey, tennis, baseball, Nebraska Ball, rifle practice, golf, horse back riding, swimming, baseball, track and field events, basketball and bowling.

It is intramural and sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association. Their slogan is "A game for every girl," and "Every girl in a game."

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

(Member of the national organization namely, Athletic Conference of American College Women).

PURPOSE

"The purpose of this Association is to foster school consciousness and school spirit and to help promote the Health Education of the women of Nebraska Wesleyan University."

The quartet for this season were Dwight Mason, first tenor; Floyd Hansen, second tenor; Lawrence Nye, baritone; Harley Hubbard, bass.

Girls' Quartet

The Nebraska Wesleyan University Girls' Quartet had a very successful season.

Mildred Thomas, Margaret Thornton, Birdene Holtz and Cecile Van Skike composed the quartet. Helen Mullikan was the accompanist.

Girls' Sextette

This year the Girls' Glee Club organized a sextette, and chose for their name "The Revolutionary Maids Sextette." They chose their costumes in keeping with their name. Many delightful programs were given for various functions within the city.

Hazel Wiseman, Lucille Thompson, Doris Jackson, Darlene Johnson, Iris Johnson and Helen Mullikan were chosen by Professor Anna B. Witte. Naomi Yost was the accompanist.

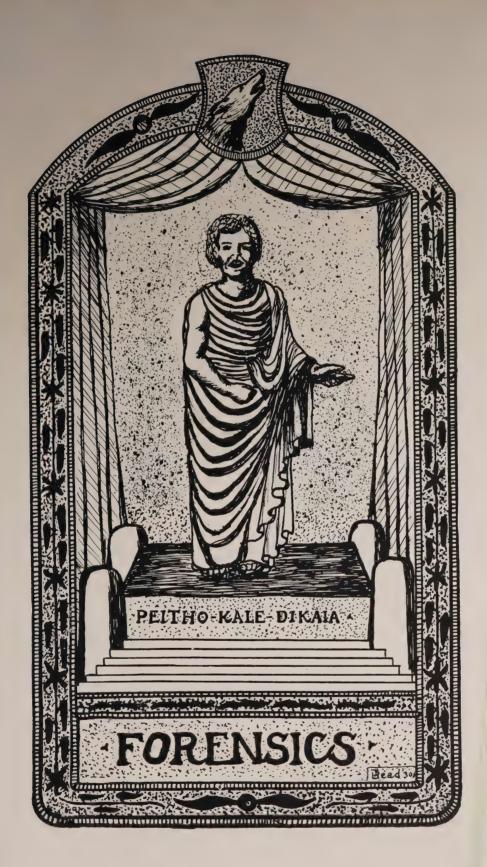

Orchestra and Band

The orchestra and band, under the leadership of Professor Knies, has made splendid progress this past year. The String Orchestra plays over W C A J every Tuesday morning for Convocation. The Band has been very faithful at all of the athletic contests.

Perhaps the greatest feature of the year, was when the band introduced the New Wesleyan March. The words of the piece were written by Professor Enid Miller, the music composed by Professor Knies. It was introduced and dedicated to Chancellor Schreckengast in chapel.

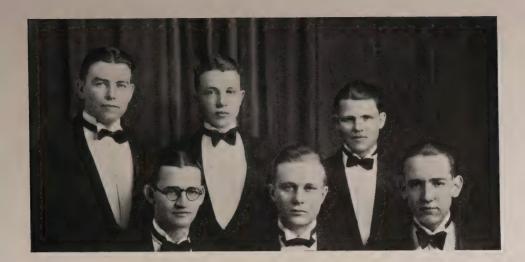

ENID MILLER, A. M.

Six years ago, Enid Miller came to Nebraska Wesleyan University. By her vivid personality, and by her hard work, she coached debaters and orators to victory. She has a record that is envied—a record that few schools have surpassed.

Miss Miller is loved and admired by every member of the student body. But she does not limit her attention to only that within her department—as the upper classmen will remember—the Stadium Drive of 1928-1929—or that all the students will remember—the new song "Row Out" to which she contributed the words.

"For the Chancellor and your School" was her challenge to every student.

Men's Affirmative Debate Team

The Men's Affirmative squad had a very successful season. They not only debated the schools within their own state, but traveled into other states. Their big trip of the year took them into Iowa and Illinois.

The squad consisted of five old members, with one new member.

Those of the old squad are: William Brown, Axel Jensen, Cecil Stanley, Warren Guthrie, Harold Ried. John Brooks was the new man on the team.

The debators of Nebraska Wesleyan completed in April what stands as the most strenuous season in the history of Wesleyan forensics.

The debate teams traveled more than four thousand, six hundred miles during February, March and April and have participated in fifty-five inter-collegiate contests with 35 Universities and Colleges in 12 of the nearby states. Trips were taken in Iowa and Illinois, South Dakota and Iowa, Nebraska and to the National Pi Kappa Delta tournament and convention at Wichita, Kansas.

Men's Negative Debate Team

The Men's Negative Debate Team consisted of four seniors, Gaius Watt, Harold Bosley, Donald Swanson and Glenn Wiltsie.

Two freshmen became a part of the team. They were Val Curtiss and Amos Coffman.

Of the 55 debates held, 22 were non-decision, 9 were lost while the remaining 24 were victories for Wesleyan. The results of the state conference debate season are not known, but it appears that Wesleyan is certain of first or second.

Not only was the 1930 season outstanding because of the number of debates held, but also because of the number of students participating in forensic work. Heretofore the men's squad was kept down to eight but because of the caliber in tryouts the number was increased this year to include twelve men. In addition there were six on the women's team, making a total of eighteen on the squad.

Women's Debate Team

The National Pi Kappa Delta convention held at Wichita, Kansas, completed the season for the Women's debate team. In a season of nineteen debates, there were eight wins, four losses, and seven non-decision contests. The four-day trip into South Dakota and Iowa sponsored nine inter-collegiate contests.

Rose Marie Fellers, Thelma James and Eva Kailey were the veterans of the team. The new members were Roberta Goodhue, Loretta Osborne, and Mary Elizabeth Schilders.

Nebraska Wesleyan Orators

This year, Nebraska Wesleyan has a group of orators of which she may justly be proud.

William Brown was victorious in the local contest. Having won the right to represent the school in State contest, he went into it with all of the Wesleyan spirit and was not satisfied until he carried off the honors of first place. Thus Nebraska Wesleyan has won the State Oratorical contest for six consecutive years.

Gaius Watt represented the University in the Prohibition contest that was held at St. Paul M. E. Church. He was one of the high point men, thus entitling him to a trip to the Anti-Saloon League Convention at Detroit. This contest was sponsored by the local Anti-Saloon League.

Cecil Stanley with his oration, "The Parrot," represented Nebraska Wesleyan University at the National Pi Kappa Delta Convention held at Wichita, Kansas.

"Billiard Balls" was the name of Margaret Servine's oration. She represented the University in the Women's Oratorical contest at the National Pi Kappa Delta convention.

Harold Bosley won the local Constitutional Oratorical contest. The district contest was held at Nebraska Wesleyan University. He placed second in this contest.

William Brown represented the University in the Peace Oratorical contest.

Freshman Class Debate

As is the custom of this University, the classes held their inter-class debates. Perhaps one might also say, as is the custom of this University, the Freshmen carried off the honors of defeating the Sophomores.

In the contest, the Sophomores defeated the Seniors, and the Freshmen defeated the Juniors in the first round of debates. Thus the two upper classes were eliminated.

Those who upheld the tradition were: Vernon Clemens and Amos Coffman of Lincoln and Val Curtiss of Geneva.

DRAMATICS

Towards the close of the school year, a report blank was sent to the several chapters of Theta Alpha Phi. The last question read: "What single word best expresses the condition of your chapter?" From Nebraska Alpha the answer went back—"Alive"! When a club sponsors four heavy three-act plays, an evening of one act plays, aside from innumerable programs for local organizations, and clubs in a single season we feel we have a right to the term "alive."

The parting of the heavy brown velvet curtains that swing across our stage has revealed an interesting dramatic year. Tap lead the procession of plays with "Monsieur Beaucaire." Here was all the glamor and romance of the good old days of chivalry. In "The Importance of Being Earnest," Widle's master-piece, we found recreation and real joy. The evening of One Acts furnished mystery and tragedy. "The Poor Nut," perhaps our most popular play is one of the most entertaining college plays ever written. Booth Tarkington furnished the play for High School Day. "The Intimate Strangers" is a delightful comedy of love and amusing situations. Theta Alpha Phi of Nebraska Wesleyan looks back over the season of plays with the happiness that comes from work well done.

Shelly has said, "Whatever strengthens and purifies the affections, enlarges the imagination, and adds spirit to sense is useful." It has been said "The artist appeals to that part of our being which is not dependent on wisdom, to that in us which is a gift and not an acquisition—and, therefore, more permanently enduring. He speaks to your capacity for delight and wonder, to the sense of pity, and beauty, and pain; to the latent feeling of fellowship with all creation—and to the subtle, but invincible conviction of solidarity that knits together the loneliness of innumerable hearts to the solidarity in dreams, in joy, in sorrow, in aspirations, in illusions, in hope, in fear, which binds men to each other, which binds together all humanity—the dead to the living and the living to the unborn."

BLUE KEY

PURPOSE

Blue Key is a national men's organization for the betterment of student life in the university. Its members are newly elected each year. The group is composed of twelve members of the senior class who are elected as juniors, two being chosen from each fraternity.

Blue Key is an honor organization because membership stamps a man as one of ability and resourcefulness, who has given proof of his willingness to work in an unselfish manner for his institution and the student body of which he is a part. It marks him as a student leader whose opinions are worthy of consideration because they are the results of straight thinking and good judgment, backed by the right ideas of life and how to get things done properly.

ALL-UNIVERSITY MIXER

The first all-university mixer of the year was in the form of an athletic contest. The students were divided into four groups as they came into the gymnasium. The most exciting event—an unscheduled one—was the fight for the possession of the piano. Several men managed to ride all over the gymnasium on it while the combatants struggled to get it for their side.

A "Night in the Klondikes" displayed the true "he man" characters of the students. Many boots, beards, and axes were flashed as the money flowed freely.

COLLEGE HUMOR

INTRODUCTION

The editor of this section is placed in a very embarrassing situation. The jokes in this section will please some, and some of the less understanding students will take offense at them. The Ed realizes this, but he just can't help it. He is glad for only one thing—that is that the things said about him will not be seen in print.

As you read through the pages that follow, you will see a number of ads intermingled with jokes, or vice-versa, a number of jokes intermingled with ads. The firms who have bought space in this book have made it possible to present this book to you. Students and faculty, they have thought enough of Nebraska Wesleyan to do this. Let us show our appreciation by supporting them.

Flour

For the past three score years VICTOR Flour has been the outstanding Nebraska made flour. The enviable reputation that has been built up during this period has been made possible only through the honest intent and conscientious efforts of its makers—The Crete Mills. Not only is VICTOR Flour one of the best known brands of flour used by housewives in Nebraska and surrounding states but it is also used by hundreds of bakers throughout the United States.

"We are such good pals. When we are together he tells me all he knows, then I tell him all I know."

"That's fine, but don't you find the silence a bit oppressive?"

"The annual is a great invention—
The school gets all the fame,
The printer gets all the money,
The staff gets all the blame."

We know that bit of verse is old. No doubt it is true, but the staff desires to add—

"We hope our book holds memories
That will last throughout the years
To those who've helped, here's hearty thanks:

We're through at last—three cheers."

BEACON FOR LINCOLN'S SOCIAL OCEAN DREAM

"I hope that is a nice book for you to read, darling," said a conscientious mother to her very young daughter.

"Oh, yes, mummy, it's a lovely book but I don't think you would like it. It's so sad at the end."

"How is it sad, dear?"

"Well, she dies, and he has to go back to his wife."

"If he asks me I'll say 'Yes'." It doesn't make much difference. He's clever and good-looking. His hands are gentle. I like to feel them in my hair. I think he would treat me all right. If he doesn't ask me, all right—but if he does I'll say 'Yes'."

"Shampoo, madam?"

"Yes."

I think that co-eds are surprisingly original. I know one who is exceptionally so; in fact, I can hardly imagine a more clever girl. She can think of so many novel ways of declaring her regret in not being able to date on the particular evening that I have suggested. Following are striking examples of the versatile phrasing she has used on nine different occasions when expressing such regret:

- "I'm so sorry."
- "I'm terribly sorry."
- "I'm very sorry."
- "I'm dreadfully sorry."
- "I'm awfully sorry."
- "I'm darn sorry."
- "I'm more than sorry."
- "I'm sorry."

What is the Poor Ed to Do?

This idea of humor is a picnic.

If I print jokes, people say that I am silly and vulgar.

If I don't they say it is too high-hat and won't even read it.

If I write original matter they say that I lack variety.

If I print excerpts from other college annuals I am lazy.

If I go out rustling news, I am waisting time.

If I don't, I am not attending to business.

If I don't print contributions, I lack appreciation.

What is the poor Ed to do?

"Did you know that Columbus was crooked?"

"Aw, he wasn't either."

"Sure he was. He double-crossed the ocean."

WHAT IS LOVE?

Love is when a girl wearing a long white dress will ride to a formal in the fellow's rattle-trap, moth-eaten, dustladen, topless automobile.

"That fellow's driving his car so carefully that I think he must be a ending possibility, but we shudder to new driver."

"No, he just paid cash for the car."

First Freshman: I'll bet we have a bigger bathtub than your family does!

Second Squirt: Maybe so, but I'll bet ours has the biggest ring.

"The talking pictures have a never think of a slow motion film of a man stuttering."

Jingle fenders, jingle frame, jingle all the way:

Oh what fun it is to ride in a second hand Chevrolet.

Our sociology professor was conducting a private social investigation on the outskirts of the city. "Do you think it healthy to keep your hogs in the house?" he asked of the head of a numerous family.

"Waal, I don't know," drawled the other; "I've been keepin' my hogs in here for nigh on fifteen years now, and I ain't never lost one of 'em yet."
